A Message From Seminar Leader, Jackie Barber

Uniquely Qualified Instructor

JACKIE BARBER is an experienced Third Grade teacher and Instructional Coach, with particular expertise in matching practical, classroom tested strategies with the needs of her diverse students. Focused on only the best strategies that are proven to support instruction – rather than adding just one more thing to teachers’ very busy days – Jackie shares the easy-to-use, non-tech and tech tools perfect for any Third Grade classroom. She incorporates critical strategies into classroom content to help support student engagement and integration of cross-curricular learning. Jackie is a proven expert able to help all educators infuse practical, ready-to-use ideas into their daily instruction. She has taken her expertise of Third Grade and presented to teachers across the nation. Her knowledge is respected and helpful to teachers faced with the challenge teaching a wide range of students. Jackie is also the author of Catching Up THIRD GRADE Students Who Have Fallen Behind, the extensive digital resource handbook each participant will receive at the seminar.

Dear Colleague:

“The teacher’s task is to initiate the learning process and then get out of the way.”

– John Warren

As educators, we are greeted each day with a variety of students that make up our community of learners. We understand that each student in our classroom brings a different developmental, social, emotional, and academic background to us each day. Much like you, I want only the best tools, tips and tricks that will help improve the learning of ALL Third Graders.

In this information-packed seminar I will share with you a wealth of research based, classroom proven strategies and techniques to catch up your students who have fallen behind and push forward those who haven’t. I have designed this seminar to share dozens of the most practical ideas and approaches. In my experience as a Third Grade teacher and Instructional Coach for many years, I have successfully used these strategies to create engaging lessons where all students succeed.

From this fast-paced seminar, you will leave with the ideas you need to make the most of small group instruction, engage students more effectively, and maximize learning through intentional, gradual release. We will focus on how to integrate technology to support time management, opening up instructional time for meeting students’ individual needs. These teaching strategies have not only impacted my Third Graders’ foundational skills, but allowed me to create lessons with collaboration in mind. I know they will work for your Third Graders too!

I am eager to share these resources with you and am excited for you to walk away with new tips and tricks to add to your bucket of tools. Thank you for jumping into this jam-packed day of learning. I am looking forward to sharing the best of the best ideas and helping catch up any Third Grader who has fallen behind!

Sincerely,

Jackie Barber

P.S. You will also receive the extensive digital resource handbook I wrote specifically for this seminar that is filled with the ideas and strategies we will cover, along with other highly practical suggestions to explore on your own!

“I will share with you a wealth of research based, classroom proven strategies and techniques to catch up your students who have fallen behind and push forward those who haven’t.”
