Learn and build the necessary foundation for training staff in effective Co-Teaching practices

Participants attending will learn the key components for a successful Co-Teaching program, which can then be delivered as a professional development framework that fits the schedule according to each school's or district's unique training needs. The following key components are included in this four-day train-the-trainer institute.

What Co-Teaching Is and Isn't

- Learn the practical working definitions of Co-Teaching and the key characteristics for an effective framework that bridges learning gaps
- Discover what works in establishing Co-Teaching teams and pitfalls to avoid
- Use the Co-Teaching rubric to target professional development needs of your staff and maximize your training resources

Building Powerful Instructional Co-Teaching Teams

- Identify specific ideas for defining roles between Co-Teachers
- Learn keys to successful communication
- Gather tools for working together to strengthen your instruction
- Explore creative ideas for finding time to collaborate
- Distinguish best practices to tap the expertise of each teacher in the Co-Teaching partnership

Whole Class Co-Teaching: Making the Most of Two Teachers in Whole Group Instruction

- Examine best practices for whole group structures
- Discover practical strategies to use Co-Teaching to enhance instructional effectiveness and to meet students at varied readiness levels, whether in-person or remote
- Target specific teaching strategies to maximize each Co-Teacher's expertise during whole group instruction

Successful Small Group Practices to Increase Student Outcomes

- Identify the essential elements of establishing small groups within the same classroom
- Manage small groups in a Co-Teaching model
- Maximize the benefits of small groups with research-based instructional strategies

Video of Co-Teaching in Action to Demonstrate Effective Inclusive Practices

- Best practices for using videos to train others
- Outstanding training tips and a resource kit to train others (each participant will receive ALL videos specific to their grade level to use in their own training)

Receive Comprehensive Training Resources

All participants will receive a valuable package of resources including:

- Three-Year Subscription to a Professional BER Co-Teaching PD Resource Kit with Streaming Video used throughout the training (choose K-6 or 6-12). Streaming videos contain the video footage needed for a complete Co-Teaching training for your school and district
- Detailed Digital Facilitator's Guide and reproducible hand-outs that walk you through the delivery of a powerful Co-Teaching PD
- Comprehensive Co-Teaching Digital Resource Handbook filled with material to reinforce and extend learning
- An adaptable PowerPoint Slide Deck to assist your presentation team in quickly developing your own school and district training

Featuring Two of the Nation's Top Co-Teaching Experts

Sonya Heineman Kunkel is an outstanding educator with more than 35 years of experience working with students with disabilities. Sonya specializes in strategies and modifications for the general and special education classroom as well as collaborative techniques with an emphasis on Co-Teaching. She is featured in the video series, Using Co-Teaching to Increase Learning for All Students, Grades 6-12, and has been honored with many awards including Educator of the Year in her state for her dedication and passion for teaching her students. Sonya is well known for her practical, cutting-edge strategies and brings a sense of humor, enthusiasm, and inspiration to her highly organized workshops.

Yamiley Jean-Simon is an experienced Co-Teacher, presenter, and leader. Yamiley first started utilizing Co-Teaching strategies in inclusive classrooms as a special education teacher. She experienced such effective results that she continued additional training to become the district's Co-Teaching trainer. Over the years, she has collected a wide variety of highly effective strategies and tactics to leverage the Co-Teaching partnership in a wide variety of classrooms. As a Special Education leader, Yamiley enjoys helping teachers learn her classroom-tested strategic supports tailored to maximize student growth and success.
